ROKDIM - NIRKODA

ISRAELI FOLK DANCE MAGAZINE

LIMITED TIME OFFER!

ROKDIM-NIRKODA, an Israeli folk dance magazine published three times a year, is a joint venture of Rokdim, based in Israel, and the Israeli Dance Institute in the United States.

ROKDIM-NIRKODA represents the merger of the Israeli Dance Institute's English language publication, Nirkoda, with the Hebrew-based Rokdim. This venture makes the content of Rokdim more accessible to Nirkoda's English language readers.

ROKDIM-NIRKODA, a magazine printed in both English and Hebrew, contains articles on all aspects of Israeli dance including dances, choreographers, etc., plus listings of ongoing sessions and more. Subscribers will also receive Keshet LeMachol, the Israeli Dance Institute's bimonthly Clearinghouse Calendar that is published only in English, and, as part of this offer, will be sent as an Adobe Acrobat (pdf) attachment via e-mail. Keshet LeMachol brings you the most complete information available about world wide Israeli dance and related events. Each issue also includes a featured dance with both the step descriptions and the song lyrics in Hebrew, English transliteration and translation.

Subscription Information (U.S. subscribers only):

$20 - One-year ROKDIM-NIRKODA subscription and an E-mail version of Keshet LeMachol.

$25 - One year ROKDIM-NIRKODA subscription and a print version of Keshet LeMachol.

For our current subscribers, we thank you for your continued support and would like to offer you the opportunity to extend your current subscription for an additional year at this special rate. (Foreign subscribers please contact us for subscription information.)

Please make checks (in US dollars) payable to the Israeli Dance Institute, Inc. and mail to IDI, JCRC-Suite 700, 70 West 36th Street, New York, NY 10018.

The subscription price does not reflect actual production costs. Your additional contribution is tax-deductible.
